

Applying for the Mitch Daniels Early Graduation Scholarship and the Minority Teacher Scholarship

The Mitch Daniels Early Graduation Scholarship is a one-time $4,000, scholarship for students who graduate from a publicly supported high school at least one year early. The scholarship may be used toward tuition and fees and any remaining funds shall be remitted to the student. The scholarship may not be used for remedial coursework.

The Minority Teacher Scholarship is a scholarship for minority students (defined as black and Hispanic individuals) planning to teach in an accredited school in Indiana upon graduation. Students must agree in writing to apply for a teaching position in Indiana and, if hired, teach in Indiana for at least three years.

Step 1: Visit ScholarTrack.IN.gov, click “Create an Account” and select “I am a student.” Students will need their name, date of birth, email address and SSN. Note: If you have a Limited ScholarTrack Account, click the “Upgrade Your Account” link on the bottom of the page. You will need your Social Security Number to upgrade to a Full Account.

Step 2: After you login, click “Apply for Student Aid.” Then click “Get started” to begin the process of applying for state aid.

Step 3: Next, walk through the questions to complete your profile for student aid. These questions will determine your financial aid eligibility.

Step 4: After completing the questions, you will see a list of State Financial Aid awards you may be eligible to receive. If the award is currently available you will have the option to APPLY. Once you click APPLY, you will be taken to an application page.

Step 5: To complete an application, students must agree to the FAFSA Acknowledgement, which states that all students must file the FAFSA to be eligible for state financial aid. After you have completed your applications, click SUBMIT.
