

Raise Me Scholarships

Seniors please be aware of the Raise Me Scholarships where you can earn money for college based on grades, volunteering, work, filing the FAFSA, and other projects. You can earn college money basically on doing all of the right things while in high school. Visit the website: www.raise.me/scholarship to sign up.

Earn micro-scholarships for your high school achievements

Earn no-essay, non-competitive scholarships from hundreds of colleges for your accomplishments in high school. From scoring well on the SAT or ACT, to maintaining a high GPA, to participating in sports or extracurriculars, to supporting your family, your work in high school can help you find and afford college.
